CALL TO ARTISTS

The City of Lincoln is soliciting donations of new artwork for the Twelve Bridges library in celebration of the library's tenth anniversary this October. Art matters to any community for the same reason that a library does: it gives us a past and a future, both of which can be admired here in the present. At the Twelve Bridges Library, we want to continue displaying art that not only reflects our community, but also inspires the 700+ visitors we receive every day.

Artists of all ages and at all stages of their careers are invited to submit work for consideration. We're looking for paintings and artistic photography from local artists, and we're particularly interested in work that speaks to life in South Placer County. Don't let that limit you, though – we're ready to be wowed!

Funds for this project are extremely limited. We are primarily interested in works to be donated or given on long term loan. Our Friends of the Library group may purchase extraordinary works, if the funds can be raised.

Applications may be digital or hardcopy, and must include:

- Cover letter, including biographical information and a short artist's statement
- Contact information
- Description of the work, including title, medium, and size
- Photograph of the work
- Whether the work is to be donated, loaned (include loan period), or sold (include price)

First consideration will be given to complete applications received by September 15, 2017; our art committee will then select works deemed appropriate for the library. Artists will subsequently be contacted by a member of Library Staff. Artists will be responsible for delivery of work and any unusual installation requirements.

For submissions or future questions, please email TwelveBridgesArt@gmail.com, or contact Sam Schlafer at 916-4343-2403.
